DEAN HENRY READ — Seton's gold star coach.

Class of '67 to Graduate June 23

Seton Hall's Class of 1967 will graduate on June 23, in a solemn ceremony. Father Francis X. Gaeta of St. Vincent de Paul Church, Elmont, will open the program at 8:00 P. M. in the Sister Marie Clotilde Auditorium. Salutarian, Gary Roscott will welcome parents and guests.

Diplomas will be presented to the graduates by Father John Martin of St. Pius X Seminary, Uniondale. Father Edward Dexter of Pretoria, South Africa will deliver the address to the graduates.

Following the presentations, Lucille Abate will give the class valedictory speech and the class of '67 will sing the school song.

Father Gerald Hogan of St. Francis Assisi Church, Medford, Massachusetts will officiate at Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Assisting Father Hogan will be Father Ralph Monteleone, deacon, and Father Mortimer Gleason, subdeacon.

Class Night on June 11 signalled the approach of Graduation. The evening began with a 5:30 P. M. Mass celebrated by Father Charles Ehrhart, who also delivered the Baccalaureate address.

The buffet supper was followed by the presentation of awards to members of the Seton Hall Days and Milestones staffs, to Speech and Debate Club members and to winners of prizes for other extra - curricular activities.

After the awards, the Citations provided the music for dancing until midnight. During the evening, there was a Father - Daughter and a Mother - Son dance. The

Coach Henry Read Tops All - Star Teams

Mr. Henry Read recently was awarded the highest honor that can be bestowed upon any coach on Long Island. The Daily News selected him as All Long Island Coach of the Year.

This was a first for Coach Read—a grand climax to the most successful sports year in the history of Seton Hall High School. The baseball team went undefeated in League play and captured the first place crown in the Catholic High School League.

Earlier this year, the football team won the Interstate Catholic High School Championship. The Eagles also won both the indoor and outdoor track championships and Mr. Frank Kerr, Track Coach, was named Honorary Coach of the year by the Nassau - Suffolk Catholic High School Athletic Association.

Mr. Read who serves as Dean of Men has been head coach here for 27 years. He is president of the Nassau - Suffolk Catholic High School Athletic Association. This marks the eleventh time in his coaching career that Mr. Read has been chosen Coach of the year. He has previously been given the award four times in football and six times in baseball.

Phi Beta Kappa Winner To Be Valedictorian; National Merit Scholar To Welcome Parents

When the Class of 1967 makes its final group appearance at Seton Hall on June 23, Valedictorian, Lucille Abate, and Salutarian, Gary Roscott, will represent the seniors.

Lucille has achieved the highest cumulative average: 95.31. She is the recipient of the Phi Beta Kappa Award for excellence. This carries a full tuition scholarship to Adelphi University, C. W. Post College, and Hofstra University. Lucille is also the winner of a full four year scholarship to St. John's University which she has accepted. Besides her scholastic achievements, Lucille takes an active part in the Glee Club, the Spanish Club, and the recently formed Greek Club. She is one member of the class of '67 who has had an unbroken record of attendance since her entrance into Seton in September, 1963.

Salutarian, Gary Roscott, has reaped a number of honors. His four year average of 93.47 marks him as the highest boy in the class of 179 students. This has won Gary a scholarship to Brown University and also the ninth Annual Paragon Oil Award. He was also a National Merit Scholarship finalist. Like Lucille, Gary spends his spare time in school activities. He is an active member of the Political Science Club; he belongs to the tennis and track teams, and he is co - editor of Milestones 1967, the senior's yearbook.

SHE TOPS THE GIRLS; HE, THE BOYS — l.-r. Gary Roscott, Lucille Abate.

Seton Hall Days is a news magazine published six times throughout the school year.

The faculty and the students extend sincere sympathy to Elaine Amerino on the death of her father.

May his soul and the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

HE MADE SETON HALL DAYS A NUMBER ONE WINNER —Editor "Jack" McGlennon.

Students Aid Viet Nam

The final project of the Mission Club: a collection of soaps, shaving creams and sundry other toilet articles—is now on its way to our fighting boys in Vietnam. Students from all the homerooms were asked to bring in gifts they thought would be useful to the boys. Each class sent cartons of products to the Mission Club Headquarters. Then the Missionites packed the toiletries—hundreds of bars of soap, quantities of toothpaste, and dozens of shaving articles—into individual cases made by the Mission Club members.

Fondly We Bid Adieu

Editor John McGlennon

This, the last issue of 1966-67 Seton Hall Days, will soon be forgotten by most of the students of Seton Hall, but we, the staff members, will long remember a year of joys, frustration and great satisfaction. Each of our six issues holds for us a treasure of memories. There are private jokes and displays which will never see the light of day (luckily), but which each and every one of us will remember for the rest of our lives.

How can we ever forget that first issue, when no one knew what we were doing; or the night the lights went out in one section of Seton Hall; the pizza parties and the trips to Ricky's? We have torn apart anything and everything which struck our fancy, but just try finding stauncher defenders of Seton Hall than those who inhabit that glass-walled office in the sophomore corridor.

As we finish typing the last story and laying out the last page, we remember the long nights and weekends, the phone calls to the convent, and the late night surprises.

To next year's staff we say, "good luck and work hard," but we ask ourselves, how can anyone have a better year than we did? There were times when we wished to write up a mass resignation, that's true, but with graduation now near and our last issue finished, we realize that none of us would have traded one minute of our time on Seton Hall Days staff for anything in the world.

Thank-you's are long overdue to Sister Peter Claver, our principal, who has given us the opportunity to "slave away" our year; to our moderator, Sister Joseph Agnes, who gave herself and her experience to us when we needed it most, and to all the loyal staff members, especially the two juniors who were always on hand. But most of all, we owe our thanks to the students of Seton Hall. They were the news we covered and the features we wrote, and when one of them asked "when is the paper coming out?" or "how long till the next issue?" all the work seemed worth while.

Seton Foursome To Serve Our Country

Four graduating seniors will enter the military branch of the service in the coming months. Richard Hartley, "seeking adventure," will arrive at Parris Island, South Carolina, July 26 to start his training for the Marine Corps.

Thomas Mooney will follow in Rich's footsteps in October. Tom has been the photographer for Seton Hall Days and Milestones for the past four years, besides being active on the Student Council during junior year.

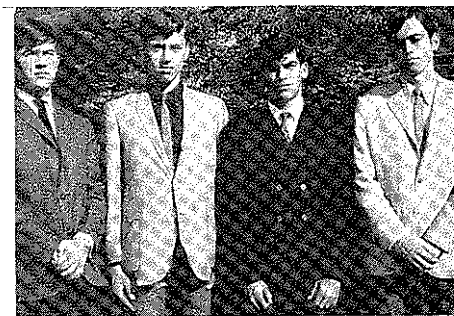

Co-Editors Hail Editor: John is People's Choice!

This past year Seton Hall Days has been fortunate in having John McGlennon as its Editor-in-Chief. John was "discovered" when he was a sophomore by Mr. Kerr. He soon began to work on the paper, and by the time he became a senior, there was no question about who would be editor. In May he accepted the High School Journalism Award for Seton at the Long Island Catholic annual awards dinner.

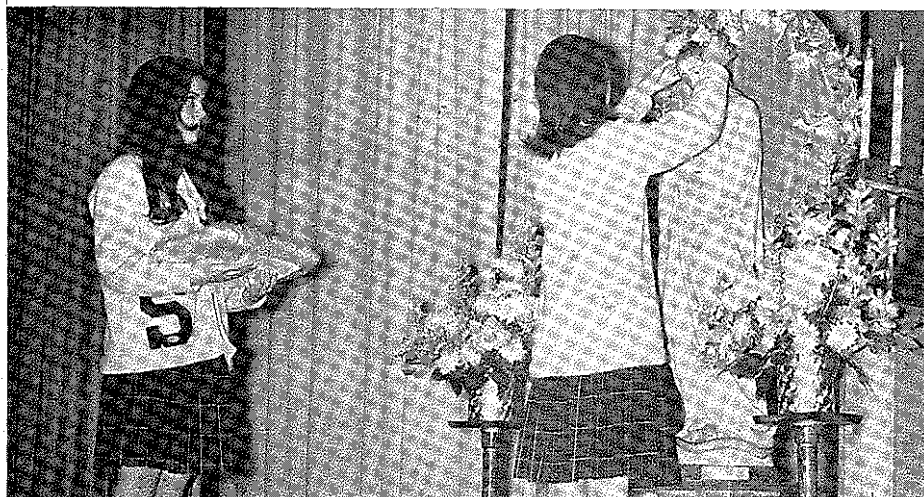

His success is not limited to the journalistic field, however. He has been notified of his acceptance to the two colleges to which he applied: Fordham and Niagara.

Outgoing and friendly, John lives in Saint Patrick's parish, Bay Shore, with his parents, two brothers, and Champ, his cocker spaniel. This summer he plans to work at Belmont Park. Come September, he will enter Fordham where he will take a Liberal Arts course with a major in Political Science.

Entering the Air Force are Dennis Manning and Thomas Quintero. October will find Tom and Dennis at the Lake-land Air Force Base in Texas. Both plan to study electronics. Dennis summed up his personal feelings when he said "The most important search for us (seniors) begins immediately after graduation. It's the search for one's self—who are you, where are you going and how will you do it? I hope to find myself in the service of my country. Others try college. Good Luck."

Coronation Ends Year; Seniors Plan Ceremony

Senior Mary Dowling drew the fortunate privilege of crowning the Blessed Mother's statue during the Coronation ceremonies Friday, May 26. Maureen O'Sullivan carried the crown. Under the chairmanship of seniors John Puff and Eileen Moloney, the entire ceremony was written and organized by the class of 1967. Tributes to the Blessed Mother, composed by various members of the class in poems and prayers were offered by David Casiano, Donald Harrow, Theresa DeGennaro and John Puff.

Guest speaker, Father Edward Dexter brought Mary into closer contact with the lives of the Setonites as he spoke warmly of the people's need of Mary. He then gave the congregation Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Leaders Pledge Service

James Andrejkovics and Maria Savoja will head Seton's Student Council next year as President and Vice-President respectively. As a result of the elections held on May 18, Jimmy and Mia hold the responsibility for the Student Council during 1967-68.

The election was held after a week of campaigning which included a televised "Meet the Candidates" program featuring Eugene Mensching and Patricia Foley as well as the newly-chosen officers. After the voting, Jimmy pledged to "develop a spirit of cooperation between the students and the faculty and to make next year the best yet."

Editors Go To School

This summer, juniors Carolyn Foster and Thomas McDonnell will attend a journalism institute given by Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C. Throughout the course, they will be living on the Catholic University Campus. The aspiring staff members will leave for Washington on June 28. The course runs until July 29.

At the institute the students will be instructed in reporting, editing, photography, feature and editorial writing, layout, headlines, caption writing and finance. They will also have the opportunity to work on the Catholic University Paper, The Pioneer.

This course will provide a thorough back-ground in journalism for the two juniors. As Tom McDonnell said, "It is a great honor for Carolyn and me that the school is sending us to learn the diverse fields of journalism. We plan to show Seton that we are worthy of the confidence they have placed in us by making next year's Seton Hall Days the best paper in the country."

Among the various activities that will be available outside the classroom will be field trips to a metropolitan newspaper.

Coaches, Sportsmen Lauded at Spring Assembly

The Spring Assembly — the final one of the school year — was held in the Sister Marie Clotilde Auditorium on Friday, May 26. Coach Henry Read praised the sports teams for their past very successful year during which they have won four out of seven possible championships. He then presented sports awards to the boys' baseball and tennis teams. John Rooney and Steve Bendetto vied with each other in extolling Coach Read and in thanking their teammates, Sister Peter Claver, and the student body for their encouragement and support.

Track Coach, Mr. Frank Kerr awarded his runners and commended their "valiant efforts." They have been chosen as the A.A.P.S. (Athletic Association of Private Schools) champions for the third year in a row; the Nassau-Suffolk Catholic High School Association Dual Meet Champions for the second year in a row; the N.S.C.H. S.A.A. outdoor Champions for the second year in a row; N.S.C.H.S.A.A. indoor champions. The Frosh have won cross-country indoor and outdoor championships.

The freshman basketball team honored their coach, Mr. John Sheridan, with a bronze plaque.

Girls' sports and activity letters and chevrons were given to juniors and seniors who had accumulated 100 or 200 points. Mrs. Gloria Kruckel spoke glowingly of her various teams and of her hopes for the future. Her teams have had excellent results this year: they were undefeated in softball and suffered only one defeat in field hockey.

Speech, Debate, and Journalism chevrons and letters were given by Father Ed Dexter. Michele Briglia, president of the Forensic Club publicly thanked Sister Gabriel Gerard, Speech Club Moderator, whose coaching has prepared the club members so well that they have garnered more than 100 trophies during this past year.

At this, the last assembly, the undergraduates honored the senior class with a standing ovation as the seniors filed out of the auditorium for their final time.

L. I. C. Awards Cameraman

Thomas Mooney, staff photographer of Seton Hall Days, was awarded first prize for photography in the Long Island Catholic Journalism awards competition. Tom's photo of the Junior ring ceremony was one which the Catholic said, "treated an annual event in an unusual way." Tom has been photographer for Seton Hall Days and Milestones for four years.

Senior members of the Seton Hall Days staff attended Hello Dolly, in New York on May 31, in the St. James Theatre.

'Involvement' Means Helen

Familiar to all at Seton Hall is Helen Callahan, one of the senior class V.I.P's. Helen divides her time to accommodate many activities but her favorite pastime remains resting and relaxing. This seems hard to believe as she can usually be found busily involved with Student Council, as vice-president, Inter-Racial Council as president and Milestones as staff member.

Helen enjoys swimming, politics, soul-music and sitting around on Friday nights with the Islip girls (?). She is always the first to speak out "in attack of evil and defense of good."

Helen will attend Stonehill College with hopes of a career in social work. About school, Helen said "I love Seton Hall — if I had to do it again I would... with a few changes."

LENNY CONWAY AND HELEN CALLAHAN, President and Vice-President of the Senior Class, smile contentedly after a successful prom.

Future Pilot Opts For Syracuse

Senior Class President, Leonard Conway, has displayed an ability to lead in his four years at Seton, whether it be in sports or student government. As President of the sophomore, junior and senior classes, Lenny has proved that he has the respect and admiration of his fellow classmates. His offices have made him responsible for such school activities as the Kerry in junior year, the Junior Ring Dance, the seniors' Washington trip, the Sno'ball and the Senior Prom.

Lenny's leadership has also been evident on the basketball court where he has been co-captain of the Varsity squad for two years; he has played on the team for three years. He has also been on the varsity baseball team for three years. In both sports he has been twice awarded honorable mention for the League All-Star and All-County. His background in these sports can be traced to his years in St. Joseph's Grammar School, Babylon, where he played for two years.

Lenny will attend Syracuse University where he has been awarded a $200 a year Trustee scholarship. After he finishes college, Lenny wants to become a pilot.

"Seton has been my life for four years," said Lenny. "I have had great times, made a lot of friends, and have been given a terrific education from Seton. I hope that I have given to Seton Hall even a fraction of what it has given to me."

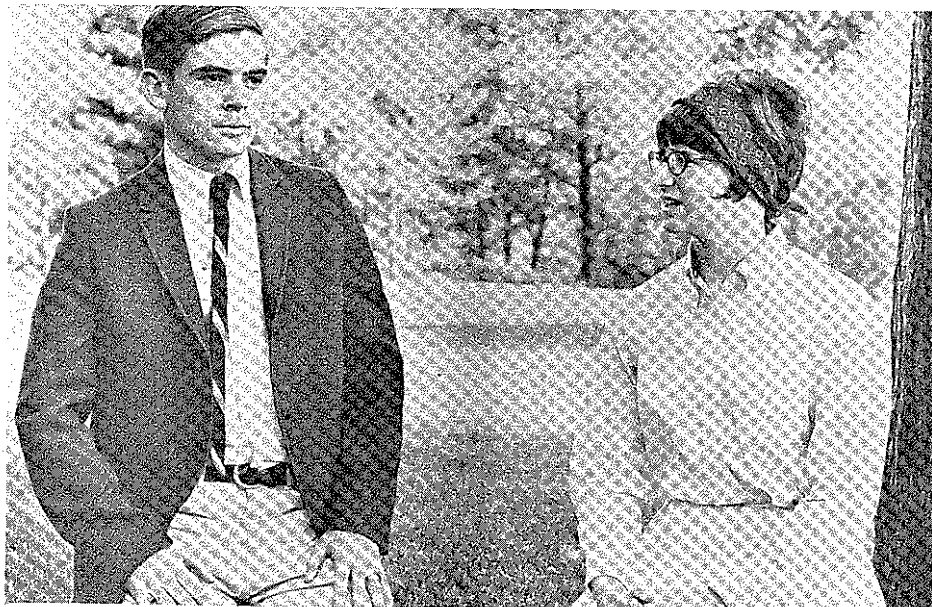

S. C. Prexy 'Ran' Well; To Attend Siena in Fall

When Kevin Fullam is not busy running the Student Council, he is an integral part of Seton's track team. The blond senior has been on the outdoor and indoor track teams and the cross-country team for four years.

Kevin was elected Student Council president in a lively campaign at the end of his junior year. Previous to this, he had served as homeroom representative to the council in sophomore and junior years. Kevin has "enjoyed working with the council. I am very proud to have the opportunity to lead this voice of the student government."

Kevin likes the Beach Boys and says he wishes everybody did. Kevin will attend Siena College in the fall, and he will major Economics. He hopes to become a teacher or businessman. Mr. Kerr, his track coach, "has been a great inspiration to me," said Kevin.

VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE STUDENT COUNCIL, Candi O'Keefe discusses plans for the future, near and distant, with President Kevin Fullam.

V. P. "Charts" Course

Candice O'Keefe, Student Council Vice-President, has a solid record of leadership. This is her third year in student government. She was vice-president of her junior class last year.

Candi has been the mainstay of the Girls' sports team in her four years at Seton. She has been on the Varsity Track, Field Hockey, Basketball and Softball teams for all four years captaining the Softball team for two years and heading both the Field Hockey and Basketball. She uses her sports ability outside of school to help her father coach the C.Y.O. swimming team in her parish, St. Rose of Lima in Massapequa.

Among Candi's interests are Johnny Mathis, the Letterman, water skiing, surfing, her Honda and a little toy soldier from Bellmore. Candi is Girls' Sports Editor for Milestones and has been a contributor to Seton Hall Days.

"I owe a lot to Seton," said Candi, "I hope that others can have as successful a four years as I have had." In September Candi will attend Briarcliff College, where she will major Cartography.

Eaglettes Score For 5 - 1 Record

Seton's Eaglettes posted an impressive 5 - 1 record in softball.

A victory over Q.R.A. opened the season with a score of 16 - 5, Seton's favor. Pitcher Sharon O'Mara drove in four runs while Candi O'Keefe blasted thee.

In their second outing of the season, the varsity suffered its only defeat at the hands of the more experienced Saint Joseph's team. A homerun by Sharon O'Mara in the seventh inning was a highlight of the game.

Recovering from their defeat, the seasoned Eaglettes trounced William Floyd. Diane Bendernagel and Candi O'Keefe each contributed seven points to Seton's cause.

In the next encounter, Seton virtually walked all over Our Lady of Mercy. Pitcher Sharon O'Mara allowed only one hit in a game filled with many errors.

The home team captured a victory over Smithtown High in the following encounter. After trailing 2 - 1 for three innings, the girls finally got down to business. Every member of the team scored in a fourth inning rally.

The deficit was too much for Smithtown to overcome. They went down to a 12 - 8 defeat.

The final encounter of the season saw the Eaglettes beat Sayville by a score of 8 - 7. The last inning was a crucial period as the girls scored the winning three runs.

Girls' success this season may be attributed to many causes, one of them being Candi O'Keefe. This was Candi's fourth and final year of varsity softball. Playing shotstop, she has scored 18 runs this season and is a fine player as well as an expert hitter. Many girls from this year's team will be returning to form the nucleus of next year's team.

Prospect Good For '68

by Pamela Borzi

"This year's J.V. developed into an excellent all-round team," said girls' Coach Gloria Kruckel. The girls remained undefeated throughout the season.

Making her debut against Q.R.A., frosh Chris Kenah pitched a 6-3 victory. The girls fine form and game gave the clue that this team was one to watch.

St. Joseph's was the Eaglettes next victim as Muriel Hackett slammed in three runs. St. Joseph's was scoreless for the first two innings, but earned one run in each successive inning.

Luck was not with William Floyd, as the J. V., as well as the Varsity defeated the teams they faced. Chris Kenah held the losers to only four runs, while Seton scored 20.

In the game against Our Lady of Mercy at least three runs were scored in each of the seven innings. Our Lady of Mercy rallied in the sixth inning, racking up 11 runs, but by this time, Seton was in the lead and hopes for O.L.M.A. were dim.

The J.V. record was boosted to 5-0 with a 7-4 victory over Smithtown. The girls then went on to defeat Sayville in the closing game of the season. The 9-6 win over this team brought the J.V. the undefeated season that they had hoped for.

Five girls from the J.V. will move to Varsity next year. Pitcher Chris Kenah has been outstanding. As a reward, she might find herself pitching for a winning varsity team next year. Sharon Dunleavy and Mary Ellen Rowse, who play first and second base respectively, and Eileen Mullen, all freshmen, have also been promised berths on the Varsity.

KATHY DONNISON, playing second, receives peg from third.

Puff's Pressbox

by John Puff

It's all over now, and it's been a great year. With both boys' and girls' sports together, Seton has had the best year in its history.

An interesting sideline: John Rooney has been the first man ever to gain entrance to both the football and baseball teams on the Long Island All-Stars of the Daily News.

John has done a fantastic job as key man on varsity sports. He also received a grant in aid to pay his college costs for Princeton University.

"Girls sports will be very strong next year," says Coach Gloria Kruckel. The JV girls were defeated only once in field hockey and had an undefeated season in softball. Although the girls are losing highscoring Candi O'Keefe in hockey, they still have veterans Loretta Kirk and Sharon O'Mara. Promising stars from JV are Judy McCarthy, a soph with great potential, Hanny Ruddy and Carol Murray.

In softball Sharon O'Mara will be Coach Kruckel's biggest hopeful in the hitting and pitching departments.

Great glory to coaches Henry Read, Frank Kerr and Mrs. Gloria Kruckel for Seton's most successful year in its sports history.

Cirisano Leads J V Through Successful Season

With an 11 - 3 record, Seton's JV Baseball team finished in second place behind Saint Agnes by one game. Slow in starting, the team came alive, winning their last seven straight games.

Doug Cirisano went undefeated winding up with a 7 - 0 record. He pitched two shutouts. Bob DeBois pitched a no - hitter against Mercy in a 2 - 0 win. The power hitters of the team: Kevin Ryan, Bob Davi, and Doug Gargan came through in the clutch.

Mr. O'Donnell, JV coach, feels there have been improvements, especially in defense. Kenny Kruckel and Kev O'Donnell were the stand outs. "The spirit and cooperation among the team members was great," commented Mr. O'Donnell. "Next year we'll get in first place."

Eagles Climax Most Successful Season

Raise high the roofbeams! Hats off to the champs!

Baseball, Football, Outdoor and Indoor Track have all rated tops. The boys have come through with championships in four out of seven possible leads. This is indeed a record to be proud of.

Steve Bendetto's pitching scored for Seton to help take the baseball pennant. Steve has been elected to the Long Island All-Star team. John Rooney also received this distinction for the second time! His hitting was above a .400 percentage.

Coach Frank Kerr accomplished a tough job. He modeled the trackmen into a championship team.

Tom Rothwell and George Frost excelled in distance running. Chris Hayden and Chuck Sabolis perfected the pole vault and high jump.

Coach Henry Read brought the men to the top position in a hard fought for football championship. John Rooney was elected as All-League quarterback by both the New York Daily News and the Long Island Catholic.

TOM ROTHWELL (L) AND CHRIS HAYDEN (R) have been two of the most outstanding runners for Seton this year.

MR. READ (L) AND MR. KERR (R), Seton's coaches of the year, hold victory plaques.

Seton Takes League Title

Seton Hall's baseball season ended in complete victory as it easily captured the first place pennant over Saint Mary's.

Mr. Henry Read, nominated by the professionals as Coach of the Year, put the team together. All Long Island pitcher Steve Bendetto, blanked out teams.

At press time, John Rooney topped hitting with an average of over .400. Naturally, John was elected on the All Long Island team as short stop.

Seton seized the championship in the victory over Saint Mary's.

Rich Brand was the winning pitcher. Rich allowed only 4 runs to give the Eagles their first championship since 1962.

The game was number 14 for the team. Dick Preuss' 2 run homer in the fourth inning provided the eagles with the go-ahead runs.

Previous to this game, Saint Dominic's proved an easy opponent as Rich Brand pitched a shutout behind the 7 run scoring of the Eagles.

In the second inning, Seton got 6 of its runs. Marty Enterlin scored the first run. Rooney scored Jim Galvin and Kev Borland on a single to left.

Bill Bazarewski scored the next 2 runs on a single to right. A long double by Joe Beyel scored the final run of the inning.

LaSalle was no match for the Eagles as the hard-hitting players scored another 7 runs to the Kaydets' 3.

Steve Bendetto was the ace of the game. He proved why he is the Long Island All-Star pitcher.

Steve allowed only 3 walks, 3 runs while striking out 11 batters. The game kept Steve's league season record clean at 6-0.

Outdoor Runners Take Three Crowns

Nassau-Suffolk Catholic High School Champions as well as Private School Champions are Seton's outdoor trackmen. The team finished its league dual-meet season in first place with an unblemished 88-0 record. The harriers had a triangular meet every Monday for four weeks and won each one.

Saint Agnes and Saint Mary's both suffered their first defeats at Seton. Double winners for Seton were George Frost in the 100 yard dash and 220, and Pat Danaher who won the high jump and triple jump. Other first place winners were Chris Hayden in the high hurdles, Paul Kalinowski in the two mile, Chuck Sobolis in the pole vault and Paul Varacalli and Gene Moscater in the hurdles. Seton took first in 10 of the 16 events and won with 90 points.

A week later, Seton faced the biggest obstacle to an undefeated season, in Saint Anthony's. The track team proved equal to the challenge—they won 84-74. Tom Rothwell and Gene Moscater captured first placing as well as George Frost and Chris Hayden.

The next two meets proved much easier for the championship team. George Frost, Chris Hayden, Chuck Sabolis, Dom Donate and John Jackson were all double winners.

Seton clinched the title the following week by destroying LaSalle and Saint Pascal's (129-29-12). Seton took first in the 16 events. John Jackson took first in the half mile and discus. Other triumphs were in the mile: Dick Bangs with 4:47.4; Ed Schildt in the quarter mile, Chris Hayden in the low hundreds and Chris Geiser in the two mile. In the pole vault Chuck Sabolis triumphed with a clearing of 11'.

In these four meets the track team demonstrated the same depth and team spirit that had won them the Indoor Championship. It once again proved its superiority in league competition.

STEVE BENDETTO (L) AND JOHN ROONEY (R) were chosen as All-Long Island Stars.
