SETON HALL HIGH SCHOOL
PATCHOGUE, NEW YORK

SISTER MARIE CLOTILDE
Foundress of Seton Hall

THE FIRST CHAPEL

With space at a premium, the first Seton library occupied a corner of one of the cottages and pointed out to students the pathways to knowledge and pleasure.

THE FIRST LIBRARY

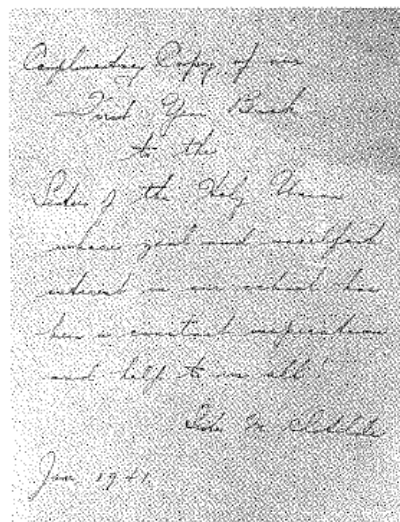

Conscientious pioneer and first-teacher
Sister Marie Ullrich planned, directed, and founded the growth of Seton Hall from its beginnings in 1910 until her death in 1936.

Priest and pioneering, the first student group as they posed before the school sign could not have dreamed what the future would hold for their little school.

GEMS FROM MILESTONES

The first Milestone has been reached—to us, the pioneer students, comes the happy task of recording, from the very beginning, the foundation of our school. 1941

September 1938—yes, that was the date—eighteen tiny, timid freshmen started out on a glorious adventure of four years. 1942

November 11, 1942—faces bright with expectancy—students dressed in their gowns of silver gray—our new Gymnasium—Auditorium was blessed and dedicated by His Excellency Thomas E. Molloy; Bishop of the Brooklyn Diocese. 1943

To Sister Clotilde—we, who have known the inspiration of your example, the benediction of your kindness, and the largesse of your intellect, extend our gratitude. 1944

"A sound mind in a sound body". Coach Henry Read. 1945

This day means much to us, Mother and Dad, for it's a day on which we may give back a little of what we have received from you. Today, Seton is yours. 1946

With deep respect and devotion, and with sincere and prayerful good wishes for a long, happy and fruitful life. 1947

"A Sister of Charity, a sister of love, of infinite love"! What work is here and what a reward, what a harvest, and what happiness in God. 1948

1849-1948 — One hundred years of service by the Sisters of Charity of Halifax. 1948

That He may teach us what to do and show us how to do it. 1949

Dedicated to the Christophers, Inc. You can change the world. May we follow the example of all Christophers in the crusade for Christ. 1950

Our happy years at Seton and recalling those who made them so cannot but include Sister Marie Clotilde. 1951

Our successors — whose companionship has meant so much to us. 1952

Our scrap book is full of memories of pleasant happenings and we have laid it open to your perusal. 1953

In compliance with the Holy Father's Dictum and realizing the importance of true devotion to Mary, we Setonites wish to make Milestones '54 a Marian Year Book. 1954

Perfect schools are the result not so much of good methods of teaching, but teachers who are thoroughly prepared. 1955

Last Fall your editors decided this book would be dedicated to her who offered an inspirational education to all of us. Sister Marie Clotilde; Principal 1937-1956. 1956

GEMS FROM MILESTONES

Milestones are important events or turning points in the life of a person or institutions. We have selected five such events in the growth of Seton Hall from the four tiny cottages, "Down on the Bay", to the magnificent structure "Up on the Lake". 1957

As the foundress of the Parochial School System in the United States, Mother Seton's ideals are indelibly engraved on American Catholic education. 1958

We walk in the light — but the light we found at Seton is only a stimulus to inquisitive minds, it leads on and upward toward the eternal light. 1959

Inspiration for all Setonites lies in the remembrances of Seton's first principal, Sister Marie Clotilde. Her far reaching vision and undaunted conviction did not end with her death. 1960

In our faithful faculty we find a service of counsel and knowledge. 1961

Buy stock in yourself—invest your money in your education. 1962
Saint of our times — Blessed Elizabeth Seton — projects her personality on the Church and the world. 1963

New York City — the melting pot of the United States becomes the melting pot of the world in the exchange of ideals and customs which is "A World's Fair". 1964

Under the guidance and inspiration of Sister Peter Claver, the "J.F.K." Science wing is well under way. 1965

To know how to suggest is the great art of teaching. 1966

Sister Peter Claver — her wisdom and love of knowledge is an inspiration to all of us. 1967

The expansion of knowledge is not accomplished without guidance. 1968

Their voices guide us along the paths of tomorrow — their concern and efforts help to build character. 1969

Each day is lived as it comes accompanied by its joys, sorrows, triumphs and defeats. 1970

The true order of learning — first, what is necessary — study. 1971

A little seed — a little care, some fun, some rain, a flower there
A little deed — a love to share, some smiles, some tears, a friendship rare. 1972

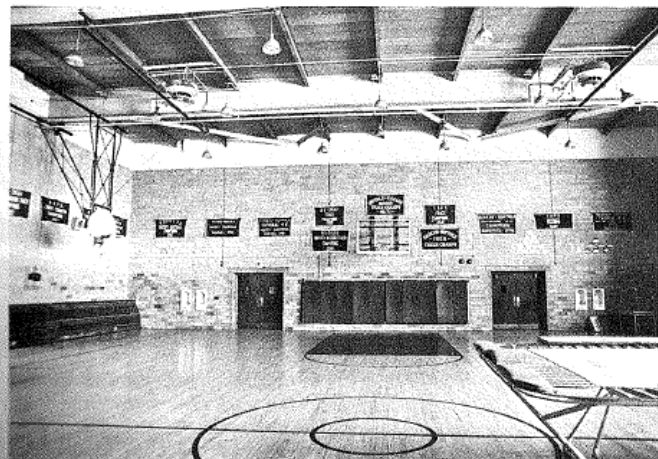

Sunrise unfolds a mystery that accompanies each new day. Sunrise brings a promise. Together they mean hope — hope for a life that is full and has meaning. 1973

We are dedicating this year book to the underclassmen, for they will not have what we have taken for granted — four years of laughter, tears, fights, homework, dances, sports, term papers, and tradition — all of the things that are a part of Seton Hall. 1974

THE MANY FIRSTS OF SETON HALL

THE FIRST DAY

Rain, Rain, and Rain—then more rain. But, oh, the excitement and the fun! The first ride down to school, driven by John Southard—who has proven to be such a true booster of our school. Then the first impression of the cozy little bungalows—the beautiful campus, and the basketball field.

THE FIRST BASKETBALL GAME

Victory—the surprise treat given by the Sisters to both teams finished things off big.

THE FIRST HALLOWEEN

Thanks for the memories—the Sayville stars made a name for themselves in dramatics and who wants to forget the Patchogue magicians.

THE FIRST LONG TRIP

The chariot (our stationwagon) picked us up at eight-thirty—at ten we arrived at the N. Y. Institute of Agriculture—then on to the fish hatcheries at Cold Spring Harbor—a visit to Theodore Roosevelt's grave—and many other local spots of interest.

The poor Sisters were exhausted from listening but they did enjoy it.

THE FIRST CHRISTMAS

The best memory is the big surprise of the Sisters when we gave them our secret a beautiful stable and a Nativity group imported from France.

OF THINGS SPIRITUAL

Our school has been placed under the special protection of Our Lady Immaculate and our school colors are hers—silver and blue.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Hardly were we back at school when the hurricane visited us. We can best record it by quoting excerpts from the Brooklyn Eagle of September 22, 1938.

FIREMEN RESCUE MAROONED NUNS

The waters around the grounds of Patchogue's Catholic High School exceeded a depth of three feet—the Sisters would not leave their stand until Father Gernant carried the Blessed Sacrament away from their waterlogged convent.

THE JUNIOR PROM

According to Sister Superior, the history making event was to be the "best" for this must be worthy of its place among the school's "firsts".

SOME 1974 OBSERVATIONS

SCHOOL'S FINANCES

No social, athletic, or study programs were eliminated in the year of 1974—this resulted in a deficit exceeding $150,000 to the Sisters.

MORALE

All the Sisters and lay teachers were deeply impressed with the excellent morale, cooperation, and understanding of the 149 seniors, 112 juniors, and 78 sophomores although 190 would not be privileged to graduate.

SIGNIFICANT SCHOLASTIC ACHIEVEMENT

The class of '74 had 6 semi-finalists for National Merit Scholarships. No other class in Seton's history equalled this accomplishment.

Dear Fellow Setonites,

No doubt many of you and your children will attend the grand finale of Seton Hall later this month. I would love to join you and my classmates there, but this would not be possible.

Unlike those who attended Seton after it moved to its present site, my memories of Seton go back to the days when it was only four bungalows down by the bay. As a matter of fact, one of my earliest memories is when the bay came to Seton during the 1939 hurricane and the Sisters had to be evacuated by boat.

The school had only opened the year before, but it was already becoming well known, especially on the sports fields. We were only a handful of boys at the school, but under the coaching of Henry Read, we soon began walking over every team in sight.

It wasn't easy for Sr. Clotilde to run a school in an atmosphere that lent itself more to a holiday camp than to serious study, but somehow we managed with the help of such dedicated staff members as Srs. Robert Marie, Claire d' Assissi, Alexander, Mary Beatrix (who is now an invalid in Halifax) and Johnny the bus driver. We must have learned something because some of us even won scholarships to college when we finished at Seton.

I hope during the grand finale someone will make up a list of past students, especially of the earlier classes, showing where they are and what they are doing. I'm sure though, that no matter where we are, the training we received at Seton is still having its effect on us.

It took us a year in Latin class to understand the school's motto — Esse quam videri — but once we understood it, it did make sense to try actually to be what we claimed to be instead of just appearing to be so, and Seton helped us to do just that.

Now the doors of Seton are closing. It won't be there to help form future generations of students. Parents will have to do that themselves. But those of us who had the privilege of being formed there will always be grateful for the formation we received.

If you should attend the closing and meet some of my classmates there, please give them my best.

Sincerely,
Father Joe

FATHERS CLUB

EAGLES

A "Last Hurrah" thank you to all the parents who gave freely of their time for the betterment of Seton Hall. While we were known as the Father's Club, many Mothers offered frequent and valuable assistance. Here are some of the activities:

- Chaperoning the dances and parties
- Patrolling sports events
- Taking tickets and parking cars
- Handling the Irish and Italian Night parties
- Riding the buses
- Chaperoning the Senior trips
- Handling many other school projects — too numerous to mention.
- Offering guidance and encouragement to students to continue their education.

Yes — This devotion aided the students' spirit and played an important part in making Seton the high level and greatly respected school it was.

"Our Last Hurrah"

is to offer five scholarships to deserving graduates as a monetary means of assistance during their Freshman year of College.
